CCJP Grandfathering Opportunity:

December 1, 2008 until March 1, 2009

Reasons a CJC should obtain a reciprocal CCJP

- Grandfathering period equals exemption from the written exam.
- IC&RC Reciprocity with 26 other Boards across the country.
- National and International recognition within the Criminal Justice and Addiction Treatment Field.
- Personal satisfaction in obtaining the top Criminal Justice credential in the country.

How current CJC's can obtain a reciprocal CCJP

- Convert your CJC to a CCJP during the Grandfathering period, which is from December 1, 2008 to March 1, 2009.
- Fill out the Blue Application (Grandfathering Application) and submit to the Certification Board for review.

How do I get the CCJP if I do not currently hold a CJC?

- Fill out the Red Application (CCJP Application) and submit to the Certification Board.
- The Written Exam will be waived if you submit your application prior to March 1, 2009. Your application will be presented, provided it is deemed COMPLETE, at the March Board Meeting.

Will the CJC still be available to in New Jersey?

- Yes. See the Green Application (CJC Application) and submit to the Certification Board.
- Please note, no exam is required for the CJC Application.
