Ethical Standards for: Women’s Treatment Specialist

The Addiction Professionals Certification Board, Inc. (APCB, Inc.) wishes to thank the National Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors (NAADAC) for the development of these Ethical Standards and for permission to use this amended version.

Specific Principles

Principle 1: Non-Discrimination

The WTS shall not discriminate against clients or professionals based on race, religion, age, gender, disability, national ancestry, sexual orientation or economic condition.

A. The WTS shall avoid bringing personal or professional issues into the counseling relationship. Through an awareness of the impact of stereotyping and discrimination, the WTS guards the individual rights and personal dignity of clients.

B. The WTS shall be knowledgeable about disabling conditions, demonstrate empathy and personal emotional comfort in interactions with clients with disabilities, and make available physical, sensory and cognitive accommodations that allow clients with disabilities to receive services.

Principle 2: Responsibility

The WTS shall espouse objectivity and integrity, and maintain the highest standards in the services the member offers.

A. The WTS shall maintain respect for institutional policies and management functions of the agencies and institutions within which the services are being performed, but will take initiative toward improving such policies when it will better serve the interest of the client.

B. The WTS, as educator, has primary obligation to help others acquire knowledge and skills in dealing with the disease of alcoholism and drug abuse.

C. The WTS who supervises others accepts the obligation to facilitate further professional development of these individuals by providing accurate and current information, timely evaluations and constructive consultation.

D. The WTS who is aware of unethical conduct or of unprofessional modes of practice shall report such inappropriate behavior to the appropriate authority.

Principle 3: Competency

The WTS shall recognize that the profession is founded on national standards of competency which promote the best interests of society, of the client, of the member and of the professional as a whole. The CDA shall recognize the need for ongoing education as a component of professional competency.

A. The WTS shall recognize boundaries and limitations of their competencies and not offer services or use techniques outside of these professional competencies.

B. The WTS shall recognize the effect of impairment on professional performance and shall be willing to seek appropriate treatment for oneself or for a colleague. The CDA shall support peer assistance programs in this respect.

Principle 4: Legal and Moral Standards

The WTS shall uphold the legal and accepted moral codes which pertain to professional conduct.

A. The WTS shall be fully cognizant of all federal and New Jersey laws governing the practice of alcoholism and drug abuse counseling.

B. The WTS shall not claim either directly or by implication, professional qualifications/affiliations that they do not possess.

C. The WTS shall ensure that products or services associated with or provided by the CDA or means of teaching, demonstration, publications or other types of media meet the ethical standards of this code.

Principle 5: Public Statements

The WTS shall honestly respect the limits of present knowledge in public statements concerning alcoholism and drug abuse.

A. The WTS, in making statements to clients, other professionals, and the general public shall state as fact only those matters which have been empirically validated as fact. All other opinions, speculations, and conjecture concerning the nature of alcoholism and drug abuse, its natural history, its treatment or any other matters which touch on the subject of alcoholism and drug abuse shall be represented as less than scientifically validated.

B. The WTS shall acknowledge and accurately report the substantiation and support for statements made concerning the nature of alcoholism and drug abuse, its natural history, and its treatment. Such acknowledgement should extend to the source of the information and reliability of the method by which it was derived.

Principle 6: Publication Credit

The WTS shall assign the credit to all who have contributed to the published material and for the work upon which the publication is based.

A. The WTS shall recognize joint authorship and major contributions of a professional nature made by one or more persons to a common project. The author who has made the principal contribution to a publication must be identified as first author.

B. The WTS shall acknowledge in footnotes or in an introductory statement minor contributions of a professional nature, extensive clerical or similar assistance and other minor contributions.

C. The WTS shall in no way violate the copyright of anyone by reproducing material in any form whatsoever, except in those ways which are allowed under the copyright laws. This involves direct violation of copyright as well as the passive assent to the violation of copyright by others.

Principle 7: Client Welfare

The WTS shall promote the production of the public health, safety and welfare and the best interest of the client as a primary guide in determining the conduct of all CDA's.

A. The WTS shall disclose their code of ethics, professional loyalties and responsibilities to all clients.

B. The WTS shall terminate a counseling or consulting relationship when it is reasonably clear that the client is not benefiting from the relationship.

C. The WTS shall hold the welfare of the client paramount when making any decisions or recommendations concerning referral, treatment procedures or termination of treatment.

D. The WTS shall not use or encourage a client's participation in any demonstration, research or other non-treatment activities when such participation would have potential harmful consequences for the client or when the client is not fully informed.

E. The WTS shall take care to provide services in an environment which will ensure the privacy and safety of the client at all times and ensure the delivery.

Principle 8: Confidentiality

The WTS working in the best interest of the client shall embrace, as a primary obligation, the duty of protecting client's rights under confidentiality and shall not disclose confidential information acquired in teaching, practice or investigation without appropriately executed consent.

A. The WTS shall provide the client his/her rights regarding confidentiality, in writing, as part of informing the client in any areas likely to affect the client's confidentiality. This includes the recording of the clinical interview, the use of material for insurance purposes, the use of material for training or observation by another party.

B. The WTS shall make appropriate provisions for the maintenance of confidentiality and the ultimate disposition of confidential records. The CDA shall ensure that data obtained, including any form of electronic communication, are secured by the available security methodology. Data shall be limited to information that is necessary and appropriate to the services being provided and be accessible only to appropriate personnel.

C. The WTS shall adhere to all federal and New Jersey laws regarding confidentiality and the CDA's responsibility to report clinical information in specific circumstances to the appropriate authorities.

D. The WTS shall discuss the information obtained in clinical, consulting, or observational relationships only in the appropriate settings for professional purposes that are in the client's best interest. Written and oral reports must present only data germane and pursuant to the purpose of evaluation, diagnosis, progress, and compliance. Every effort shall be made to avoid undue invasion of privacy.

E. The WTS shall use clinical and other material in teaching and/or writing only when there is no identifying information used about the parties involved.

Principle 9: Client Relationships

It is the responsibility of the WTS to safeguard the integrity of the counseling relationship and to ensure that the client has reasonable access to effective treatment. The WTS shall provide the client and/or guardian with accurate and complete information regarding the extent of the potential professional relationship.

- A. The WTS shall inform the client and obtain the client’s agreement in areas likely to affect the client’s participation including the recording of an interview, the use of interview material for training purposes, and/or observation of an interview by another person.
- B. The WTS shall not engage in professional relationships or commitments that conflict with family members, friends, close associates, or others whose welfare might be jeopardized by such a dual relationship.
- C. The WTS shall not exploit relationships with current or former clients for personal gain, including social or business relationships.
- D. The WTS shall not under any circumstances engage in sexual behavior with current or former clients.
- E. The WTS shall not accept as clients anyone with whom they have engaged in sexual behavior.

Principle 10: Interprofessional Relationships

The WTS shall treat colleagues with respect, courtesy, fairness, and good faith and shall afford the same to other professionals.

I have read the above Ethics Statement and agree to abide by it.
